

BRIEF ORGANIZATION DESCRIPTION

- (Use standard Lean Horizons stuff)

WORKSHOP TITLE/ DESCRIPTION

- Lean Enterprise: Understanding your Objectives, Determining your approach and Establishing your Infrastructure
-
- Too many companies embark on their lean journey without a proper understanding of the challenges, obstacles or even a specific direction. This session will cover the fundamentals of identifying, coordinating and aligning your improvement activities with the broader Strategic objectives of a company, facility or Department.

LENGTH

- ½ day

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Senior Executives: (CEO, CFO, VP Operations, General Manager, Plant Manager, Lean/CI Directors)
- Operations Management
 - Operations Staff (Materials, Finance, Operations .. etc)
 -
- Operations Staff and Team Leaders
 - Lean managers and team members, Team members of various departments, including Materials, Quality, and Engineering.

Highlights

- i. Understanding your business
- ii. Establish Business Case
- iii. Executive Roles/Responsibilities (what execs need to know)
- iv. Determine your approach
- v. Understanding key factors: Executives, culture, Business, objectives .. etc
- vi. Understanding importance of Infrastructure
- vii. Executive Steering Committee
- viii. Internal experts (existing or to be developed)
- ix. Implementation model (projects, events, combination)
- x. Deployment Model

LEARNING POINTS

- Building the Architecture of a Lean Enterprise Capability
- Establishing a Business Case
 - Cash
 - EBIT
 - Productivity
 - Capacity
 - Lead Time
 - On Time Delivery
 - ... etc
- Determining the best approach for Lean into your organization respecting multiple factors:
 - Executive Commitment
 - Resource Availability
 - Type of Business
 - Culture
 - Expectations
- Architecting your Lean Infrastructure. How will you introduce, Implement and Deploy Lean into your organization?
 - Enterprise Wide
 - Value Stream
 - Department
 - Internal Experts
 - External Consultants
 - Executive Steering Committee
 - Training materials
 - Deployment model
 - Single Site/Multi Site?
 - Central team?
 - Coordinated implementation, consolidated results

INSTRUCTOR/TRAINER BRIEF BIO

- Teri .. I think you have my full bio ..