

Michael Martyn

THE SHINGO PRIZE[®]

for OPERATIONAL EXCELLENCE

a world standard...for a global economy

Founder, SISU Consulting Group
Faculty Member, The Shingo Prize for Operational Excellence

Michael Martyn is the founder and managing principal of SISU Consulting Group, a specialized consulting firm dedicated to inspiring businesses to expand their vision, engaging teams through action and insight, and building sustainable results through adaptable process models. Mr. Martyn has extensive experience over a broad spectrum of service-based and manufacturing environments and has held numerous senior-level executive positions. Driven by the belief that lasting results come from aggressively taking action and learning through calculated mistakes, Mr. Martyn's approach may best be described as "people focused and results driven."

Defense Systems, ESCO Corp., Old Mutual Financial Network, Shriners Hospital for Children, La-Z-Boy Furniture Galleries, and Maytag.

Mr. Martyn received his undergraduate degree in economics and English from Reed College. He later completed an MBA from Portland State University.

EDUCATION

BS, Economics & English,
Reed College

MBA, Portland State University

SPECIALIZATION

Leading Lean Transformation

Creating Custom Training &
Development Material

Executive Coaching

Corporate Turnarounds

Based on his work successfully turning around companies in a variety of industries, Mr. Martyn has developed a unique management approach: teach organizations how to create urgency around change initiatives, deploy a targeted vision, identify and solve systemic problems, and quickly take action to create daily enterprise-wide innovation. Driven by his commitment to partner with each of his clients and his guaranteed to deliver results, Mr. Martyn's work ranges from developing leaders through one-on-one coaching to creating custom training materials aimed at affecting behavioral change.

Some of the organizations Mr. Martyn has worked with include: Baxter Medical Products, The Boeing Company, Dannon, Bacardi and Company, Raytheon Integrated