

BEST PRACTICE SESSIONS

Featuring top-scoring Shingo Award Recipients

Learn from the best, one-on-one. In the breakouts or in the new best practice showcases you'll see in the exhibit hall, this year's focus is on peer-to-peer learning and networking, sharing best practices and lessons learned.

KNOWLEDGE SESSIONS

Breakout sessions during the conference offer more diversity and choice than ever before. Choose from panel discussions, best practice and knowledge sessions, for business, public sector, or our new healthcare track, all themed toward the four dimensions of the Shingo Model:

- Dimension 1: Cultural Enablers
- Dimension 2: Continuous Process Improvement
- Dimension 3: Enterprise Alignment
- Dimension 4: Results

SHINGOPRIZE 2010
SALT LAKE CITY, UT. MAY 17-21

22ND ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Excellence Elevated

The conference like no other

Attendees from around the world will gather in Salt Lake City to share best practices, insights, knowledge and experience from their lean transformational journey toward Operational Excellence.

This uniquely structured and value-rich conference will expose you to the very best practices of Shingo recipient companies. Stimulate your thinking by learning from some of the great thought leaders of our time including Dr. Stephen R. Covey who will share how and why the best leaders lead by principles.

Benefit from the critical learning The Shingo Prize has gained over the past 22 years with the best companies in the world that have been implementing lean. You will learn what we have learned from them about what it truly takes to create sustainable cultural transformation.
